

FIRST NATIONAL INVESTMENT SERVICES EMPLOYEE EARNS CRPC® DESIGNATION

HERMITAGE, PA—June 11, 2009—First National Investment Services Company (FNIS), a subsidiary of F.N.B. Wealth Management, is pleased to announce that Matthew T. Bower, Financial Consultant, has successfully completed the CRPC® Professional Designation Program from the College for Financial Planning®, Denver, CO. In his current position, Bower's responsibilities include financial planning, investment guidance for retirement and education, as well as wealth transfer planning. Bower's territory covers Mercer County.

The CHARTERED RETIREMENT PLANNING COUNSELOR<sup>SM</sup> Program focuses on the pre- and post-retirement needs of individuals, better equipping Bower to transform the retirement planning process into a more positive and educational experience for his clients. The CRPC® curriculum emphasizes the importance of understanding each client's individual financial situation, and then analyzing his or her related needs and identifying investment opportunities that will best meet those needs.

Bower has earned his Series 7, 24, 26, and 66 certifications. He also holds his Charter Retirement Planning Counselor designation, as well as life and health insurance licenses. A graduate from St. Vincent College, Bower has more than six years of experience as a Financial Advisor.

Bower resides in Hermitage, Pennsylvania with his wife, Michelle, and son, Michael.

About the CRPC® Program

Graduates of the CRPC® Program must complete a specialized independent study course that provides a general foundation for giving retirement planning advice to clients. The course covers key issues that occur throughout all phases of retirement planning. The designation is awarded to students after they successfully complete the course, pass a proctored final examination, and sign a code of ethics commitment and declaration form. CHARTERED RETIREMENT PLANNING COUNSELORS<sup>SM</sup> and CRPC® are registered service marks of the College for Financial Planning®.
