FIRST NATIONAL INVESTMENT SERVICES EMPLOYEE EARNS CRPC® DESIGNATION

Matthew M. Ristvey Completed the CHARTERED RETIREMENT PLANNING COUNSELORSM Program

HERMITAGE, PA—May 5, 2009— First National Investment Services Company (FNIS), a subsidiary of F.N.B. Wealth Management, is pleased to announce that Matthew M. Ristvey, Vice President and Western Region Sales Manager, has successfully completed the CRPC® Professional Designation Program from the College for Financial Planning®, Denver, CO. In his current position, Ristvey is responsible for fourteen investment consultants who are located from Erie to Pittsburgh and through the Boardman, Ohio area.

The CHARTERED RETIREMENT PLANNING COUNSELORSM Program focuses on the pre- and post-retirement needs of individuals, better equipping Ristvey to transform the retirement planning process into a more positive and educational experience for his clients. The CRPC® curriculum emphasizes the importance of understanding each client's individual financial situation, and then analyzing his or her related needs and identifying investment opportunities that will best meet those needs.

A registered representative since 1992, Ristvey joined First National Investment Services in December 2000, assisting bank customers with a wide variety of financial products, including stocks, bonds, mutual funds, tax-deferred annuities, and retirement accounts. He received his Bachelor's Degree in Business Marketing from Indiana University of Pennsylvania and began his professional career in Pittsburgh in 1991. Ristvey's securities licenses include Series 7, 24, 63 and 65, along with his insurance licensing with various insurance companies. Ristvey is a Federated Funds President Club member and as a member of the Putnam Funds Golden Scale Club. He is also a member of Franklin Funds' Kite and Key Club and the American Funds All-American Team.

Ristvey's community involvement includes his membership in the Hermitage Rotary since 1996 where he has served as Fundraising Chairman as well as President. He is a ten-year volunteer for Junior Achievement and a past volunteer coach with the YMCA. He has also been a volunteer for Muscular Dystrophy and has served as president of the Sharon University Club. He currently serves as financial advisor to several area churches and non-profit organizations.

A life-long resident of the Shenango Valley, Ristvey and his wife, Amy, reside in Hermitage, PA along with their three children.

About the CRPC® Program

Graduates of the CRPC® Program must complete a specialized independent study course that provides a general foundation for giving retirement planning advice to clients. The course covers key issues that occur throughout all phases of retirement planning. The designation is awarded to
