FIRST NATIONAL INVESTMENT SERVICES EMPLOYEE EARNS CRPC® DESIGNATION

HERMITAGE, PA—June 11, 2009—First National Investment Services Company (FNIS), a subsidiary of F.N.B. Wealth Management, is pleased to announce that James D. Martin, Financial Consultant, has successfully completed the CRPC® Professional Designation Program from the College for Financial Planning®, Denver, CO. In his current position, Martin works closely with clients and business owners helping them achieve their financial goals and objectives. He does this by customizing a financial plan that is uniquely tailored to each client's needs. Martin's territory covers the Bank's Ohio footprint which consists of Trumbull, Mahoning, Geauga, and Lake Counties.

The CHARTERED RETIREMENT PLANNING COUNSELORSM Program focuses on the pre- and post-retirement needs of individuals, better equipping Martin to transform the retirement planning process into a more positive and educational experience for his clients. The CRPC® curriculum emphasizes the importance of understanding each client's individual financial situation, and then analyzing his or her related needs and identifying investment opportunities that will best meet those needs.

Martin joined First National Investment Services Company in August of 2006. Prior to joining the Company, Martin was a Financial Consultant for Smith Barney and Morgan Stanley in Phoenix, Arizona. Earning his Series 7 license in 2001, Martin also holds other investment licenses such as Series 66, Series 31, Managed Futures and Life, Health & Annuity.

A graduate of Kent State University, Martin earned a Bachelor's Degree in Business Finance. He currently resides in Poland, Ohio with his wife, son, and daughter.

About the CRPC® Program

Graduates of the CRPC® Program must complete a specialized independent study course that provides a general foundation for giving retirement planning advice to clients. The course covers key issues that occur throughout all phases of retirement planning. The designation is awarded to students after they successfully complete the course, pass a proctored final examination, and sign a code of ethics commitment and declaration form. CHARTERED RETIREMENT PLANNING COUNSELORSM and CRPC® are registered service marks of the College for Financial Planning®.
