FIRST NATIONAL INVESTMENT SERVICES EMPLOYEE EARNS CRPC® DESIGNATION

PITTSBURGH, PA—June 11, 2009—First National Investment Services Company (FNIS), a subsidiary of F.N.B. Wealth Management, is pleased to announce that Michael P. DiChiazza, CLTC, Financial Consultant, has successfully completed the CRPC® Professional Designation Program from the College for Financial Planning®, Denver, CO. In his current position, DiChiazza provides investment planning and solutions for individuals, groups, and high-net worth clients in the Pittsburgh Region.

The CHARTERED RETIREMENT PLANNING COUNSELORSM Program focuses on the pre- and post-retirement needs of individuals, better equipping DiChiazza to transform the retirement planning process into a more positive and educational experience for his clients. The CRPC® curriculum emphasizes the importance of understanding each client's individual financial situation, and then analyzing his or her related needs and identifying investment opportunities that will best meet those needs.

DiChiazza has earned a number of securities licenses including series 7 (General Securities Representative), 6 (Investment Company Products/Variable Contracts Limited Representative), 66 (NASAA Uniform Combined State Law) and 63 (Uniform Securities Agent State Law). He also has his life and health insurance license.

As a 1993 graduate from Xavier University, DiChiazza resides in Mt. Lebanon, Pennsylvania, with his wife, Genie, and their son, Benjamin.

About the CRPC® Program

Graduates of the CRPC® Program must complete a specialized independent study course that provides a general foundation for giving retirement planning advice to clients. The course covers key issues that occur throughout all phases of retirement planning. The designation is awarded to students after they successfully complete the course, pass a proctored final examination, and sign a code of ethics commitment and declaration form. CHARTERED RETIREMENT PLANNING COUNSELORSM and CRPC® are registered service marks of the College for Financial Planning®.
