FIRST NATIONAL TRUST COMPANY EMPLOYEE EARNS CRPC® DESIGNATION

Charles G. Driscoll Completed the CHARTERED RETIREMENT PLANNING COUNSELORSM
Program

PITTSBURGH, PA—May 4, 2009— F.N.B. Wealth Management is pleased to announce that Charles G. Driscoll, Vice President - Financial Advisor, has successfully completed the CRPC® Professional Designation Program from the College for Financial Planning®, Denver, CO. Driscoll is responsible for client acquisition of personal retirement and estate planning in the Pittsburgh Region of First National Bank of Pennsylvania.

The CHARTERED RETIREMENT PLANNING COUNSELORSM Program focuses on the pre- and post-retirement needs of individuals, better equipping Driscoll to transform the retirement planning process into a more positive and educational experience for his clients. The CRPC® curriculum emphasizes the importance of understanding each client's individual financial situation, and then analyzing his or her related needs and identifying investment opportunities that will best meet those needs.

Driscoll received his Bachelor of Science in Communication from Ohio University in 1993. He has also completed various postgraduate coursework at Boston College while enrolled at the Carroll School of Business.

Following graduation from Ohio University, Driscoll began his career with Federated Investors in various financial service capacities. In 1995, he left Federated to become a licensed Investment Advisor and Broker, and then joined a technology firm in Boston, Massachusetts two years later. Driscoll spent the next seven years in the technology industry in Boston and Pittsburgh, including founding and operating a software company in 2002.

Driscoll is a member of the Estate Planning Council of Pittsburgh.

About the CRPC® Program

Graduates of the CRPC® Program must complete a specialized independent study course that provides a general foundation for giving retirement planning advice to clients. The course covers key issues that occur throughout all phases of retirement planning. The designation is awarded to students after they successfully complete the course, pass a proctored final examination, and sign a code of ethics commitment and declaration form. CHARTERED RETIREMENT PLANNING COUNSELORSM and CRPC® are registered service marks of the College for Financial Planning®.
